Introducing Lifelong Learning at Olin

Join your exclusive community at Lifelong Learning at Olin to access all sorts of resources to keep you growing personally and professionally. See how it works.

Also, be sure to check out the newly added Lifelong Learning section below. Each month, selected content will be featured.

Tackling the opioid crisis

Learn about the Olin Brookings Commission’s groundbreaking yearlong project that could result in many saved lives. And watch or share the recording.

Alumni awards

Olin celebrated four Emerging Leaders, four Distinguished Alumni and one Dean’s Medalist, Pam Kendall-Rijos. Be sure to check out the accompanying videos—and congratulate them!

Does your company face challenges?

Want to participate in a student consulting project? Our Center for Experiential Learning has two sessions coming up: May 16-June 27 and July 11-August 19. They’re looking for organizations with business challenges—and there’s no fee to participate! Click here to apply and learn more. Applications close May 15.

Shakespeare at Olin

Tune in and watch our modest circling-the-globe nod to The Bard with a sonnet in the 2022 Shakespeare at Olin celebration.

In case you missed it

Dean Mark P. Taylor hosted a discussion with two WashU experts and a relief drive in support of Ukraine.

Listen to a Healthcare Pitch

Olin is helping WashU’s medical school with an “Innovating for Healthcare” class this summer where students take an idea from conception all the way to an angel investor pitch. If you’d be interested in listening to the pitches on June 8 and providing feedback click here.

Installation Ceremony

Peter Boumgarden will be installed as the inaugural director of the Koch Center for Family Business on June 2. Peter will present on “Ownership and Leadership in a Moralized Market” and a reception will take place immediately following the ceremony.
