It's a light time for happenings at WashU Olin. Still, we want you to know about a few upcoming events for alumni.

Power Lunch and Learn Series

Breaking into Consulting

12–1 p.m. CT

The Weston Career Center has one more virtual event this summer where we talk with a panel of alumni consultants who will share their insights about consulting careers, representing a range of consulting firms, areas of expertise and backgrounds.

Wednesdays With WashU: Finding Fellowship

5:30–6:30 p.m. CT

Join us for a conversation between Imani Cheers, BFA ’02, associate professor of media and public affairs at the George Washington University; Jason Green, AB ’03, producer of “Finding Fellowship” and co-founder of Skillsmart. They will discuss the film “Finding Fellowship,” social justice, history, community, and more. Mary McKay, vice provost of interdisciplinary initiatives at WashU will moderate the discussion.

How to Lead in a Virtual World

5–6 p.m. CT

Join us for a brief presentation by Professor Andrew Knight as he offers practical strategies you can use to survive—and thrive—in this age of hybrid and virtual work.

Chicago: WashU Welcome Party

5:30–7:30 p.m. CT

Join the Washington University Chicago Regional Cabinet and WashU Chicago Network in welcoming new alumni to Chicago! During this event, you will have the opportunity to learn about our alumni groups in Chicago, sign up for upcoming events, and connect with those new to
