

Scholars in Business

Your impact will last a lifetime.

Each year, WashU Olin Business School opens its doors to hundreds of deserving students through the Scholars in Business program. Undergraduate and graduate. Domestic and international. Need- and merit-based. We're proud to provide world-class education to so many bright and deserving students. Scholarships truly change lives—and that makes a world of difference.

At WashU Olin, we are preparing the next generation of business leaders to change the world, for good. Our students are informed by numbers and driven by principle, looking beyond the bottom line to make decisions that will have the most impact. We are creating leaders forged on experiential preparation, a global outlook and an entrepreneurial spirit.

We encourage donors to establish a scholarship by making a multiyear commitment, or you may choose to renew your gift each year.
