Accomplished: Triple accreditation

With the announcement on April 28 that Olin earned EQUIS accreditation, we join an elite group of global business schools.

Olin launches online MBA

The school will enroll its first cohort in January 2022, and the program will focus on preparing students for leadership in a digitally enabled world. See the article in Poets & Quants.

Vacationing alum saves man's life

Dr. Jeffery Davis caps off a family trip to San Diego by springing into action to rescue a severely injured boater.
Congratulations are in order

Olin celebrated the 2021 Dean’s Medalist, four distinguished alumni and five emerging leaders.

Dean’s Medalist
Carl Casale (EMBA ’92)

Distinguished Alumni
Andrew Rubin (BSBA ‘98), Eric Veiel (MBA ’99), Robert Vitale (PMBA ’94) and Kelli Washington (MBA ’94)

Emerging Leaders
Ryan Courson (BSBA ’10), Elise Miller Hoffman (MBA ’16), Ryan Hwang (BSBA ’09), Phillip Lewis (BSBA ’07) and Timothy Trinidad (BSBA ’09)

BSBA alum commits $8 million

John Dains supports an undergraduate student success fund at WashU, naming the fund after his late wife.

Reflections on leadership

Dean Mark P. Taylor and General John R. Allen, president of the Brookings Institution, advocate for a global outlook and a strong values system.

Mind-bending

A change of perspective may increase managers’ willingness to invest in new technology, study finds.

Alum moves up

Ryan Plotkin, MBA ’16, is the new president of family-owned manufacturing company M-D Building Products.

Looking to network?
University Advancement has launched WashU CNX, the university’s new online community in which alumni and current students can network, collaborate and grow personally and professionally.
