Learn about entrepreneurship and innovation from the unique viewpoint of Israeli business and educational experts. This unique opportunity, open to undergraduate students of all majors, faiths, and beliefs, allows you to study entrepreneurship, innovation, and start-up creation through coursework, experiential learning, speakers, and company visits.

- 6-week summer program in Tel Aviv June 8–July 20, 2017
- Open to undergraduate students of all faiths and beliefs
- No previous business coursework or knowledge of Israel is required
- Program is worth 6 credits

Application Deadline: February 15, 2017*

Questions & More Information:
Email: isba@olin.wustl.edu
Web: olin.wustl.edu/isba

*Completed applications will be evaluated and early acceptance given on a rolling basis starting January 5.

"I came to ISBA knowing little about venture capital or entrepreneurship, and I walked away feeling like an expert."
—Noah, University of Michigan, ISBA 2016 Alum

ISBA is a collaboration between Olin Business School at Washington University in St. Louis and the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) in Herzliya, Israel.