

Jack H. Purnell

Executive in Residence, Olin Business School

Jack Purnell is Executive in Residence in the John M. Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri.

He retired from Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., in 2001 where most recently he was Executive Vice President and a member of the Anheuser-Busch Strategy Committee as well as the three-person Corporate Office.

He held many other positions in his 36-year career at Anheuser-Busch, including Vice President of the domestic company's Marketing Staff, Senior Vice President of Corporate Planning and Development, and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Anheuser-Busch International, Inc.

Purnell serves on the boards of St. John's Mercy Health Care in St. Louis, and the Boys' Club of St. Louis, Inc.

A native of Maryland, Purnell received a bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering from Johns Hopkins University and received a master of business administration degree "with distinction" from the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania, in 1965.